Another forward step, as we have before noticed, is about to be taken by the party now in power. In their idea of progress, the uprooting of the foundations of society and the destruction of civil rights; their war upon the acknowledged doctrine of States' righte, and all of the various viciations of the Constitution they have committed in the sacred name of Union and for the specific abolition of slavery, are not all they intend to do. Some time since we noticed the remarks of Sanstor Summer and the language of the Philadelphia Press, striving to connect the Catholic church delivered, to the loss of the merchants, and nstrument to war against it.

Of all the papers distinguished by zeal, ability and untiring perseverance—the one most influential and foremost in the Republican party-the New York Tribune is the leader. Others bring partisan rancor or inflammatory billingagate alone to their aid. The Tribuse, with a diabolical skill, increases In sbort, if a men vote right and is duly loyel, this by cool assumptions; by the collocation of facts or forgeries to sustain its assertions, and charging all that it deems crimes upon Mayor Opsyke was a pattern of a map, and Several of its lower counties are largely if not prepondersuly peopled by native Catholics, and the Catholic is one of the strongest denominations in the State, not only in numbers but in rect some of those shortcomings the better to wealth. That State has inst shake off. wealth. That State has just shaken off the incubus of slavery, after an earnest, protracted struggle wherein nine-tenths of her Catholic people (cadive as well as Irish born), and we believe all her Catholic clergy, have stood for Caholic anspices, and slavery thus planted on its soil while it was still a dependency of Spain. She, 100, has had a terrible straight with the rebellious firnd, which she has very nearly exercised, and which she will ere length have utterly cast out. But throughout this some distance in advance of their commands, struggle, the great body of her Cataolica, and especially of their private, have been, as they they still are, on the side of slavery and its adjuncty, resisting emancipation, and thus at foreign aid and comfort to the rebellion. It all the wide region controlled by the rebels we have never yet heard of one Catholic priest who was not to their side, recognizing their functionaries as "the powers that be" who are "ordained of God". The Archbishop of Charleston is now the Confederate envoyat the Papil Court, where he has eligited the only plain recognition of Mr. Jefferson Davis as a chief magnistrate that has been accorded by any European Government. But when territory references in Colorado Territory writes in plain recognition of Mr. Jefferson Davis as a chief megistrate that has been accorded by any European Government. But when territory recase of New Orleans, which we have held uncontested for rearly three years), we hear of no itstance in which its Catholic priesthood considers our authorities as "the powers that lot" whom they are religiously bound to respect and de'er to; on the contrary, they generally remain bitterly, though not demonstratively, rebel. And, whereas all the Catholic clergy within the rebell into are setive rebels, and who is any more loyal than the law requires him to be. As a body, their influence disconserse sulistments in our armies and tends to enfeable and paralyze the prosecution of the war.

Are these statements disputed? Is it decided that the empire just entablished in Mexico, in deflaces of the undisgnised repugnance and the traditional policy of this country, is under special Papal bleasing and guidance?—that its Emperor visited Rome on purpose to obtain them prior to estitus foot on the soil.

If the traditional policy of this country, is under special Papal bleasing and guidance?—that its Emperor visited Rome on purpose to obtain them prior to estitus foot on the soil of the new world? It seems hardly necessary to notice one or two cases of malfeasance in office these times, but still some day people will think more of such things. The New York Times tells us of some reforms lately made by the new Surveyor. For some business in the bonded warehouses merchants have been charged twenty dollars, when they now pay but five. Then it has happened that packages left in the bonded warehouse have been opened, and some of the articles abstracted. The Times speaks of this as not an uncommon occurrence. Then, again, it is charged that when bonded goods are sold, there is delay in getting them with the slavery question, and to use the in- that illegal transactions are necessary to get tenefied fanatical feeling in the North as an a prompt delivery. Then, how many thousands of volumes of well bound books have been imprisoned for years behind plate glass and black walnut, in the libraries of men too busy to read them-Now is the time for a general juli delivery. Select the very choicest and best for the men who are giving their blood that you may have time to erjoy the remainder. Many a wealthy book collector could, without much sacrifica donate a whole library of one bundred and fifty volumes. Why not do so, and enjoy the pleasure of knowing that he has rescued so many from the auctioneer and the executor. Thousands of families have the magezines n large numbers. Send them to the birder, and have them bound in thin volumes, Sick men cannot hold up a large back. Your own son, or brother, or husband, may be pining for some relief to the pale of his wound or the tedium of his sickness. You can send the very books you wish' to cheer him through the New Year's Gift Camp Library. We hope every on of our readers will re-

Amusements, THE OPERA .- We were gratified to see so large an audience last night at the farewell performant of Grover's grand opera, which embraced, first, selection from Meyerbeer's Huguenots. Form sang the "piff paff" song with his usual gusto A part of Der Freischueiz was then given. The prayer was sung by Marie Fredirici very beautifully. The trio of Frederici, Canissa and Habelman was more than beautiful; concluding with the sec ond and part of the fourth act of Paust, which was received with marked enthusiasm. We commend Mr. Grover and his grand opera to the brethren of Wood's THEATER -The grand speciacular dramof the "Seven Sisters" was performed at this poular place of amusement last night to one of the argest and most fashionable audiences ever as mbled in the city. The piece has been put upon the stage in the very best manner and reflects great credit upon the managers. The lake of silver and the birth of Cupid in the bower of ferns are the nost beautiful scenes that we have ever seen. The antiful Miss Lotta sustains her part in the very best manner. The piece will be repeated to night. THE LOUISVILLE THEATER WIll be re-opened to night with the drama of "Don Cesar de Bazan, which character will be represented by Mr. E. M Powers, and Mad. Pozzoni as Maritana, to cor lude with the burletta of Jenny Lind.

VARIETIES.—Ever since the Ryan & Calhouminstrels appeared at the Varieties they have met with success. Since their first appearance in our city they have added new attractions to their per-formances, and have engaged several additional gentlemen of the burnt cork profession, who are nightly winning popularity. They give an enter talument every night, and they perform as well a any troupe can. Their songs are new, their dance splendid, their jokes and comicalities are of the latest invention, and, above all, laughable. Go and e them to-night and you will enjoy yourself.

HEADQUARTERS BOARD OF ENROLLMENT FIFTH CON. DISTRICT, KANTUCKY, LOUISVILLE, KY., Dec. 28, 1864. To the Public Authorities and Citizens of the Fifth Congressional District of Kentucky: THE BOARD OF ENROLLMENT OF THE FIFTH Congressional District of Kentucky respectfully sk the attention of the people to the urgent necessity f some steps in the right direction for filling the new ota of this District before a draft is ordered. We have until February next to do this, and in that time cruits enough should be induced to volunteer to any possible quota that may be determined. In addition to the Government bounty offered to volunteers the Mayor and General Council of Louisville, the Coun. ty Courts of Jefferson, Oldham, Henry and Owen may offer in 'ucements that will perform the double duty of rapidly filling the ranks and relieving the District from a draft. This Board will cheerfully do all in their power to aid this work. Substitutes, representative recruits or volunteers may be presented on any day, except Sun-day, at any h ur before 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

eally, the two great objects of which we have spoken ay be secured.

On the 15th of February the legal time expires be tween the President's call and the ordering of the draft. In that time a great deal may be done toward successully relieving this Congressional District from a draft.

A NOTORIOUS GURRRILLA KILLED -On Surday night a man by the name of Kirby, who selled under the title of Captain, C. S. A , wis killed in Spencer county, some eight miles east of Franklin, by an old farmer by the name of Lightfoot. Kirby, with a party of eight or ine men, went to the house of Lightfoot at a ate bour and demanded admittance, threatenog at the same time to burn the house if their nd was not complied with. Not liking his kind of proceedings, Mr. Lightfoot fired apon the crowd, which shot killed the leader of the band, Captain Kirby. On Sunday afternoon Captain Kirby and his garg robbed Mr. Muery, the sheriff of Allen county, of ome $2,600. This Captain Kirby some two conths since culisted in the Federal army at Franklin, and a few days after the time of his enlistment he robbed the Captain of his company of his horse, watch, and a quantity of Lyon's men. money, since which time he has been the leader of a guerrilla band.

Draft Instructions of the Board of Enrollment.

In the Union Press a day or two ago appear ed the following article, which we publish for the following article, which we publish for the purpose of directing the attention of our readers to the importance of acting promptly in seeing that the lists as published may be a new direction for the benefit of the soldier in passing along the lines. I find an almost day to less. All who are interested in eaving a fair quota determined for ithis District should rasnifest their interest by having the names of all persons improperly enrolled stricken from the rolls. All aliens, all persons of unsuitable age, under twenty or over forty five, all non residents, and all persons with manifest physical inability, such as loss of a limb, bindness of the right eye, and other conditions of that nature, who have resson to supper that they are enrolled, should at once to-day prepare their proofs and file the napers at the headquarters of the Board of Euroliment. Is doing this it is not necessary to wait until the alphabetical lists of enrolled men are prepared. There are very few persons who do not know whether they are enrolled or not.

sous who do not know whether they are enrolled or not.

All parties who are legally enrolled who have not a good claim for exemption have to meet the draft. It is the interest of each person thus interested, and each family who may have a colateral interest, to see that every name that should be enrolled is on the list.
If only 1.450 names are enrolled when 1,350
should be on the lists, and the call is for 700
mer, it is manifest that the durift bears harder mer, it is manifest that the circt bears harder or 1,450 men than it will on 1,550 men. The correction of the lists should and must be perfected by the last day of December. The work of correction must therefore be en-

The work of correction must therefore be energetically pursued if any good end is to be gained. The Board of Eurollment holds daily assions, and if the rolls are not corrected, the fault, as well as the misforture, will be with the people. Let it be impressed upon the mind of everybody that on the number of names on the enrollment books on the 31st day of December the quieta for this Congressional District will be determined. Therefore let everybody a alously set to work for the interests of this Congressional District.

The proof required in all claims is thus ex-
